

ABOUT US

Lalor Neighbourhood House has provided services to our local community for over 37 years. We provide a welcoming and caring professional environment for people to learn new skills, leading the way in English and computer courses and other adult education. We support learners of all ages from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

OUR VISION

To be a welcoming, safe and happy space where you learn, connect and make friends within a culturally diverse community.

COURSES AND ACTIVITIES

Lalor Neighbourhood House specialises in Pre-Accredited English Language Courses for adults of all abilities. These popular courses will improve your Literacy Skills and create a pathway to further study, employment or volunteer work.

We also offer a range of shorter pre-accredited courses in Computer Skills and Literacy.

We host social groups, art classes, weekly community lunches and cooking and gardening and intergenerational activities with local school students.

School age students and adults can join our fabulous one to one After School Tutoring program or our new Homework Club group. For pre-schoolers we provide a caring Occasional Childcare Service at affordable prices.

ADDITIONAL COURSE INFORMATION

Fees and Charges

Lalor Neighbourhood House is a not-for-profit organisation so we keep our fees and charges as low as possible for fee for service students.

The Victorian Government provides subsidies for many of our courses: eligible students pay the Tuition Full Fee. Concessions may also be available — please contact our office to see if you qualify.

Please go to the website for more information about our fees and refund policy.

LNH provides a safe place respecting cultural, religious and sexual preferences. People with a disability are also encouraged to enrol.

Go to www.lalornh.org.au or use this QR code for more information on our Refund Policy and to learn more about your Rights & Responsibilities and our Vision and Purpose.

Agency Referrals

Referrals from agencies seeking to place funded clients in English or Literacy classes are welcome. Initial assessment of learner needs costs $50, or $70 if a written report is requested by the referring agency. In accordance with ACFE Guidelines about Fees, the concession fees in this brochure do not apply to students whose fees are met by Commonwealth Government agencies or as part of a Commonwealth program or initiative.

Minimum Class Numbers

It should be noted that classes are subject to minimum enrolments, so some classes may be postponed or may not go ahead.

LNH acknowledges support from Victorian Government: D DFFH; of Whittlesea, Australian Community Foundation and DSS.
